

Kyushu Olle

Amakusa/Iwajima Course

What is “Kyushu Olle”? With origins in Jeju Island in South Korea, “Olle,” meaning a little alley running between the street and the house, refers to a series of trekking courses. Kyushu Olle is a spin-off of the original Jeju version.

How to Walk in Olle The feature of Kyushu Olle is the landmarks you can find on the road including the Kanse, inspired from the horse head in Jeju, Blue and Red tied ribbons, and Wooden Arrows. Head of the horse and arrows refers to the trekking direction. How to enjoy the attractions is to feel the rich nature, coast and mountains that stimulate all five senses and to feel ease and pleasure while managing your own pace of walking. You can also enjoy walking with the history and foods of its course.

Kanse Head of the horse pointing hikers direction.

Ribbon Blue and Red tied ribbons are the landmark of the course.

a. Senzaki (千崎) ➡ b. Senzaki (千崎) Kofungun Burial Mounds (0.1 km) ➡ c. ZoZo (蔵々) Fishing Port (2.5 km) ➡ d. Iwa Sakura Hana Park (5.5 km) ➡ e. Mt. Takayama (高山) (6.4 km) ➡ f. Hokabura (外浦) Coast (7.8 km) ➡ g. Senzoku (千束) Tenmangu (12.3 km)

a. Senzaki (千崎) is the start point of Iwajima course and the sign to get there is the blue board and Kanse as you see down below.

b. Senzaki (千崎) Kofungun Burial Mounds were made at the beginning of the Kofun Period (Tumulus period [250~592]) and there are 26 pieces of box shaped and vertically constructed stone coffins.

These burials mounds have been considered that they were made for the regional powerful clan who succeeded in a trading in the sea on the ground that they were built with an ocean view on the hill.

c. Around ZoZo (蔵々) Fishing Port, it has been said that mother of Shiro Amakusa (天草四郎) gave a birth to Shiro, known as Shiro Tokisada Amakusa (天草四郎時貞) led the “Shimabara- Amakusa Rebellion,” an uprising of Japanese Roman Catholics against the Shogunate. A well, sunk in 1622 when Shiro was born, is still there.

d. At Iwa Sakura Hana Park (維和桜・花公園), you'll see many beautiful flowers and trees, such as cherry blossoms and daffodils, and view of Matsushima if you go up to the observation deck. There is a site of elementary and junior high school and their main gate, which is made of stone, still remains.

e. Mt. Takayama (高山) is the tallest mountain in Iwajima, standing at 166.9 meters respectively. On clear days, you are able to see a panoramic view of the surrounding area, such as Mt. Aso, Mt. Unzen, Kyushu mountains range, Amakusa islands, Yatsushiro Sea, and Ariake Sea.

f. Hokabura (外浦) Coast was formed 65 million years ago and you might be fascinated by the beautiful and dynamic view.

※Please be aware that the seawater rushes to the feet when the tide is full at the spring tide.

g. If you find Senzoku (千束) Tenmangu and Iwa post office, the goal is almost there.
