

Shiratake Mountain

Forest Park

Campsite

Whether you want a quiet gentle stroll or an exhilarating mountain experience, there's something for you at Shiratake Mountain Forest Park Campsite.

It is located in Unzen-Amakusa National Park, providing with bungalows, tent sites as well as BBQ area and multipurpose hall.

A beautiful landscape of marshland spreads out around the campsite with pathways running along.

An endangered species of Amakusa Azalea, which lives only in the northern part of Amakusa islands in the world, blooms at the end of April. From May to October, you can also see the world's smallest swan dragonfly.
