

Mt. Takabuto

【Height:117 m】

Nationally designated as Cultural Property & Scenic Beauty

Mt. Takabuto has an observation deck with a panoramic view of Unzen Amakusa National Park.

It is also the starting point of the Kyushu Nature Trail and also the 20-kilometer-long Kankai Alps that lead to Mt. Ryugatake.

You can drive from Route 266 to the parking lot under the observation deck of Mt. Takabuto. If you go up the stairs, you will reach the top of the mountain.

The lookout on the top of Mt. Takabuto offers a magnificent panoramic view of the surrounding islands as well as a whole view of the Amakusa Go-kyo (Amakusa's five bridges) which connects the islands. The sunset from here has been selected as one of the best 100 sunsets in Japan, and the scenery of the sunsets behind archipelago is just fantastic.

Additional Information

Parking Lot

- ◎ Capacity – 5 Vehicles
- ◎ Restroom