

Hiai Beach

— Hiai Kaisuiyokujo —

樋合海水浴場

“Hiai Beach” is located in the northwest of Hiai island and is a calm beach with sparkling waves of blue sea.

In summer, you can enjoy marine leisure activities such as a water park, and it is a popular sightseeing spot among families because of the convenience of having a beach house and shower facilities.

When the tide goes out, you can walk across Takamoku island(高杵島), which is also called Amakusa Fuji, making it perfect for exploring the island. If the sky is clear, you can see Mt. Unzen (Unzen-dake 雲仙岳) in Nagasaki.
