TAYUTA

12 Suite Villas - All with Spectacular Views, Hot Springs, Fine Cuisine

You wake up with the morning sun and look out the window. No one disturbs you, no one bothers you. You have free time to do or not to do anything. Your soul and body, which had been out of alignment, soon become perfectly aligned. Once again, you feel the joy of being human. And to feel the changing of the seasons is one of the luxuries of staying in Japan. The entire island of Hiai-jima, designated as a national park, has a climate and scenery that makes summer feel like summer and fall like fall. Please enjoy the rustle of the seasons in your room.
